A RABIC TAUGHT by a NEW THEORICO-PRACTICAL METHOD.

The undersigned, P. V. CARLETTI, who, for seventeen consecutive years, has been constantly engaged as sole editor of the official Arabic Journal of the Regency of Tunis, El-tozouzi, founded by the undersigned himself, and has come to this hospitable Metropolis with the hope of finding in the field of PRIVATE TUITION a lighter work than the incessant journal-making, which has undermined his health, begs to announce to those Gentlemen who may be desirous of acquiring Arabic that he has made arrangements for meeting their demand, and offers to engage to teach them that language, on a New Method, entirely his own, so as to enable them to speak and write the said language within a short time, an accomplishment which few of those who have undertaken, or undertake still, the teaching of Arabic, have, to the best of the knowledge of the undersigned, been able to impart.

Explanations will be given in French, Italian, or English—and even in modern Greek—as may be preferred. Terms moderate, and no, elementary books required.

The undersigned is in a position to give satisfactory references; but he thinks that, in the case of teaching languages, the best reference is the proof by facts of the competence of the teacher himself and of the efficiency of his system, which can only be obtained by a Trial.

The undersigned begs also to convey to the notice of those Gentlemen who may require Translations made, that he will undertake to translate Arabic Writings into French, Italian, or English; and French, Italian, or English Works into Arabic.

He begs to state, moreover, that he has a sufficient knowledge of the Theory of the Turkish Language to enable him to teach its rudiments.

P. V. CARLETTI, Member of the R.A.S. of Great Britain and Ireland, and of the Société Asiatique of Paris.

SUPERNATURAL RELIGION;

AN INQUIRY INTO THE REALITY OF DIVINE REVELATION.

VOLUME the THIRD.

CONTENTS:—

I. THE ACTS of the APOSTLES.

II. THE DIRECT EVIDENCE for MIRACLES; The Epistles and the Apocalypse; The Evidence of Paul.

III. THE RESURRECTION and ASCENSION; Relation of Evidence to Subject; The Evidence of the Gospels; The Evidence of Paul.

"By far the ablest volume of 'Supernatural Religion.'"

The Rev. GEORGE GILFILLAN, "SCOTSMAN."

"This anonymous work is now completed. It is unquestionably full of learning and research. .... The Author is a fair opponent." — INTERNATIONAL REVIEW.

"We believe that this third volume ought to win, and will win, for its accomplished Author, unknown as to, our regret, he remains, a high repute." — INQUIRER.

"In the present volume the Author shews the same ample knowledge of the subject, with all its literature and bearings. Though the ground has been well trodden, he occupies it in his own way, putting forward his arguments in the mode he thinks most effective, with judicial calmness. .... The volume contains abundant proofs of learned research, acute criticism, and intellectual ability." — ATHENAEUM.

"An adequate treatment from a rationalist point of view of problems so full of interest and importance at once claims attention, and it will be found that the Author brings to bear upon them that clearness of statement, width of reading, and acuteness of analysis which distinguished his other volumes. .... It [this work] is distinguished by much acute thinking, extensive scholarship, and able writing." — SCOTSMAN.

"We cannot attempt to review the third volume of 'Supernatural Religion' apart from the others, and in the limited space at our disposition. It demands at a future period a more complete treatment than here is possible. .... The sketch of the character and temperament of St. PAUL in his relation to the doctrine of the Resurrection is as important as it is interesting. .... We for the present earnestly commend the book to the attention of our readers." — WESTMINSTER REVIEW.

"The present volume exhibits all the distinctive qualities of its predecessors. The Author's style has lost none of its directness and force. He thoroughly knows his own mind, and is free from hesitancy in expressing it. He has a fine confidence in his positions and the strength of his arguments. His knowledge of the modern literature connected with his subject is extensive, and is as evident in the text as in the notes. .... His book is not only one of remarkable ability, distinguished throughout by extraordinary mental earnestness and strength, but it is a needed and welcome book, were it only as a stimulus to inquiry." — ACADEMY.

"It is not necessary to inform those of our readers who are acquainted with the first two volumes of this able work, as to which of the above modes [approaching the subject as apologist or as critic] the Author adopts. He is, perhaps, as able a representative of the second class as has ever written in English. The present volume shews no failing off in point of ability or style as compared with the former two; while the evidence of acquaintance with the literature of the subject, in the shape of foot-notes and references, is fully as overwhelming. Nor has the Author allowed himself to be crushed beneath a weight of learning. He is not one of those dungeons of learning that never emit light. He utilises his resources and marshals his forces with great ability." — GLASGOW HERALD.

cover, after the design of A. Souze.

Price 6*l.*; or richly bound in full morocco, 8*l.*

The above Work is undoubtedly the finest Illustrated Work which ever appeared in Germany. We quote the opinion of some of the well-known and leading German newspapers:—

"This edition of 'Faust' excels in magnificence all books hitherto produced in Germany."—Kölnische Zeitung.

"Amongst the drawings in this new edition of 'Faust,' the numerous Illustrations of Liezen Mayer rank first. They are full of life and expression. His conception of 'Margaret' is preferable to the well-known drawings by Kaulbach and Kreling, because it is more natural, and corresponds more with the artistic charm of the character in the poem."

Augsburger Allgemeine Zeitung.

"The fifty drawings to 'Faust' have already created justly-sustained sensation at the 'Munich Exhibition.' We are mostly struck by the charming and touching picture of 'Margaret,' as represented in the different stages of the poem."

Neue Freie Presse.

"We may state safely that there has never been a finer edition of 'Faust,' and wish this great work the fullest success."—Fremdenblatt.

"For the first time 'Faust' has been illustrated in the spirit of the 'Poet.' A great master of the new German realistic school has created a grand monument to the poet, to himself, and to art. He, together with the engraver and printer, has created a magnificent work, which places itself at once in the first rank, and of which the German nation may be proud."—Ueber Land und Meer.

REASONABLE SERVICE.

By W. PAGE ROBERTS, M.A.,
Vicar of Eye, Suffolk, Author of "Law and God."

"The author keeps prominently in view the increasing number of those who, as he himself well says, want to keep their religion, and at the same time do not want to make a present to ecclesiastics of their common-sense..... An additional recommendation of the volume is the simple but vigorous language of the author, and his clear, practical views of the grounds of the Christian belief."

"Mr. Roberts' new volume deserves all the praise that his former volume elicits; his style is simple, direct, forcible. He speaks without circumlocution to the living thought and life of his hearers."

"As in the case of his previous work, entitled 'Law and God,' the characteristics of these discourses are good sense, practical teaching, and a simple, graceful style."—Daily News.BY THE SAME AUTHOR.
LAW AND GOD. Fourth Edition.
